ADUANABA films I actually mean no harm when I made fun of the "imstagram" thing but I can see you take it personal, but let me tell you something if you want more viewers and subscribers on you page then believe you me all these are part of the things that make your page interesting. It's not as if I don't know that is the name of the segment. But I also understand the fact that you need to take advantage over every little opportunity to make a page interesting for other visitors or subscribers. But if the owner of a page that is meant to entertain, educate and inform people, will attack my very person because of a harmless comment I made then what will I be doing here? I got better use for my data.

Nonsense did she mentioned someone name 😏😏😏Ghanaians always want problem for someone Ghanaians are not saying anything. Delay was just making her comment. If you want to mock Afia, then don't involve Ghanaians mock her alone so that she will insult you alone.
